One good idea holds enormous power.

When supported and nurtured, it can become the solution that transforms a community.
BrazilFoundation is dedicated to identifying and supporting the promising ideas of community leaders across Brazil that will enable a future of equal access, social justice and opportunity for every Brazilian.
Program Highlights
Together, we accomplished a lot in 2016.

We invested US$2,097,440 in 259 initiatives through 154 grantee partners across 74 cities in 21 states.
You helped us fund projects in every region of Brazil through our Donor Advised program, discretionary grants, and partnerships.

  - 150 Initiatives
  - US$1,625,698

- South / 3.60%
  - 21 Initiatives
  - US$75,557
We funded projects within 5 thematic areas through Discretionary and Partnership Grants.

- Education and Culture: 11,826 people impacted, US$287,849
- Socioeconomic Development: 9,020 people impacted, US$234,170
- Human Rights and Civic Engagement: 43,235 people impacted, US$205,130
- Health: 10,119 people impacted, US$72,768
- Social Enterprise: 8,085 people impacted, US$70,836
We invested in Education through projects in professional training...

» including technical training for youth and women in the arts, technology and beauty fields
...Culture as a tool for social change...

- including indigenous language preservation and capoeira
...and programs focused on Early Childhood Education.

“Little by little, and with the help of children, we are creating educational practices that are innovative, diverse, democratic, and fun.”

Eliane Luiz de Almeida, Coordinator at CPCD
Together we helped promote economic development by advancing technology...

training women in IT and entrepreneurship to stimulate an economy of innovation
...incubating small businesses...

» fostering and teaching aspiring entrepreneurs so they can launch their enterprises

“Fa.vela has made us demand more of ourselves, to always do the best and have the best. Professionally, the program made me believe that if I want something I can get it.”

Jéssica Campos,
program student
...and implementing ecologically-friendly solutions.

>> bringing sustainable light to remote communities

“I’m very happy. I never expected to receive such a blessing...The whole community is happy.”

Dona Santa, resident of Dominguinhos
We also supported actions to fight violence against women and promote gender equality...

» by training women as conflict mediators and providing counseling to girls
...helped the communities affected by the environmental disaster in Mariana, MG...

» by providing them platforms for their voices and the support to rebuild
...as well as civic engagement and public oversight for greater transparency.

> through citizen audits of public schools and clinics

“Medical care has improved. People can make appointments easier, and public clinics are already making changes.”

Francisco Fernandes,
Founder of ACECCI
Your support helped us fund projects that provided access to health and wellness services...

> performing expeditions to reach remote indigenous communities in the Amazon

EXPEDICIONÁRIOS DA SAÚDE - EDS
Manaus, AM

Their expedition in July delivered 284 surgeries. Watch it HERE.
...while taking important actions to prevent illness.

» by renovating precarious housing to improve health and living conditions
We also strengthened organizations that use market mechanisms for employment and inclusion...

» by supporting a catering cooperative that employs people afflicted with mental illness

VIDA EM AÇÃO
São Paulo, SP

Their Bibitantã project is a catering cooperative that offers organic, Brazilian cuisine. See the cooperative at work HERE.
...that enabled women to improve their living conditions...

>> by providing them micro-credit and training to make home repairs

“From the moment they become empowered with these skills and realize they can fulfill their dreams, their self-esteem and confidence improve.”

Carina Guedes, Coordinator at ASF-Brasil
...and promote environmental sustainability.

through neighborhood composting systems and upcycling fishing waste to produce and sell shrimp flour
Collective Impact
We democratized philanthropy, inviting our grantees to act as funders...

Through the Community Innovation Award, 37 of our grantees acted as funders using their expertise to identify, select and mentor initiatives in their communities, democratizing access to resources, fostering new leadership and encouraging innovation.
...to help discover new social technologies....

- US$136,143 invested
- 37 mentor organizations
- 71 initiatives fostered
- 15 states
- 13,754 + people directly benefited
...and to nurture the small actions that can transform communities.

>> by reviving culture, preparing youth, providing communities access to resources, and more

REALIZE

We invested in collaboration by funding partnerships and exchanges...

US$ 106,035 invested
19 partnerships funded,
involving 34 organizations
8 leadership exchanges
between 13 participating organizations
...by bringing together leaders working in the same sector...

such as sustainable housing, and training women to work in construction

PROGRAMA VIVENDA & MULHER EM CONSTRUÇÃO
Training women to make home repairs in Vivenda’s model.

ASF & ATELIE DE IDEIAS
Exchanging best practices to identify precarious housing.

LUA NOVA & ATELIE DE IDEIAS

And we hosted Capacity Building and peer learning workshops.

- 52 representatives from our grantees met in Rio to share strategies in financial management, fundraising, communications, storytelling, leadership and more.
Events and Campaigns
We united as a community...

Organizing 32 events across 7 cities engaging 3000+ people

Mobilizing resources for innovative projects

Promoting philanthropy as a tool for social transformation
...holding 3 Galas.

>> in Miami, New York, and São Paulo

“This is much more than just a celebration, it’s to help support many people and improve their quality of life in Brazil.”

Daniela Fonseca,
Board Member, Miami
We continued to mobilize donors around the growing Women for Women Campaign.

we held 8 events and funded 11 projects, impacting more than 1200 women and girls across Brazil.
Together we responded to disaster in Minas Gerais.

>> holding 4 events for our Minas Fund, raising US$84,713 for 4 initiatives working with those affected by the environmental disaster in the Rio Doce region.
We also gathered support for Rio de Janeiro...

>> in spirit of the Olympics, we launched the #TEAMRIO campaign and held one benefit dinner to bring visibility and resources to 34 projects within our Rio Fund

...and mobilized to fight Zika in Brazil’s northeast.

In December we mobilized US$18,500 through an online campaign and a party, funding 2 projects that promote Zika intervention, treatment and social inclusion for affected mothers and children.
We promoted dialogue...

>> organizing 8 talks across 5 cities, connecting more than 330 people

“The talk gave us the opportunity to meet three inspiring projects that prove that Brazil is possible and that if we join forces we can change our situations”.

Adriana Esteves, host, Belo Horizonte
...and connected our donors to the causes they support.

Moda Fusion is a landmark, really, of such great strength and desire to make things better in Brazil.”

Francisco Costa,
fashion designer,
NYC Gala 2016 honoree
Partnerships
Together we are strengthening philanthropy and catalyzing change in Brazil.

Our work requires the help of many hands, persistence, and alignment based on a future vision of shared forces.
We thank our program and co-investment partners...

who believe that by aligning resources, we can scale social impact
